1. Savagery

We kill to survive
Fire in my eyes
Life is to strive
I'll grab my prize

Sing my pleasure
Hunt is fun
Sky is azure
Burning is the sun

Meat is a great joy
I have the power, it's true
Create or destroy whatever I rule

I paint my face
A start of a chase
I paint my face
A start of a hunt

I am precious that I am I

2. Strength and will

Fire burns the forest down and lights the darkened sky
You look like a clown
Prestige of the conch dies

The child lost in the flame is gone home, yes maybe
No glory, just shame
You lose, sky comes shady

You try to control
but every time you fail
No way to be extolled
Only apathy prevails

Whispers bother your thought
People break the rule and play
They soon forget what you taught
In the pool of solar ray

We get wet when it rains
We shiver when wind blows
Courage is drained
Every night void grows

They just sit and wait for rescue and run around and shout
Fools select a fool
Fire burns your order down

Mess and chaos all what you get Even none to blame you, friends are gone
You stand and fight against the reign of violence though hollow eyes on painted faces mirror nothing
And you realize you are nothing
You realize you are nothing

Are we human race
or anything else?
Are we just beasts?
just beasts?

3. The Hunter

Fighter with spear
A symbol of power
Suddenly appear
Let your blood shower

My spear is your defeat
I'm horny with the blood
They even can't retreat
Just crawl in the mud

Dead pig out of grunt
Almost in a trance
Sing a song of hunt
We go round and dance

Fighter with spear
A symbol of power
Suddenly we appear
Let your blood shower
I on the ground

I am a hunter
I am a survivor
I am a burner
I am a killer
I am a hunter
